

In my view, BPL, as proposed, would have a devastating effect on the Amateur Radio community nationwide. I understand the economic impact to the commercial sector but, I concur with the technical submissions of the American Radio Relay League and encourage the FCC to consider the impact on amateur radios ability to support our homeland security efforts and to continue to provide emergency communications services during times of disaster should their ability to operate be compromised by this (or any other) technology.